SaveWealth Awards Grand Prize to Hawaii, Revs Up for Next Year

CARLSBAD, CA - July 25, 2001 – The travel division of SaveWealth.com™ celebrated the official end of the Tax Break Sweepstakes by announcing the promotion's grand prize winner.

Bonnie Hurm of Florence, Kentucky recently arrived back from vacation to learn that she had won the grand prize trip to Honolulu, Hawaii. Ms. Hurm and a lucky guest will be spending five days and four nights lounging on the shores of Oahu. Airfare and lodging are included in Ms. Hurm's prize.

Twenty other first prize winners won an Eagle Creek Travel Pouch, thanks to the firm's Tax Break Sweepstakes.

"Since most people dread the tax season, we thought a trip to Hawaii might boost some spirits," noted Scott Carr, Director of SaveWealth. "Thanks to our continuing partnership with Travelscape, we were able to build customer awareness of our SaveWealth Travel center, while providing some well-deserved relief for those tax season woes."

While no specific plans for a contest next year have been announced, SaveWealth is hard at work updating its Tax Center for 2001. "This year is going to be more frustrating than ever," added Mr. Carr, noting the recent tax law changes that took effect in the middle of the year. "Taxpayers may want to start planning their April vacations now, because the new tax law changes will create major headaches for most taxpayers."
